

INVITATION

THE KÁROLI GÁSPÁR UNIVERSITY OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN HUNGARY IS PROUD TO ANNOUNCE THE INAUGURATION OF THE

JONATHAN EDWARDS CENTER HUNGARY (JECH)

WITHIN THE INSTITUTE OF THE HERMENEUTICAL RESEARCH
OF THE FACULTY OF ARTS

The JECH is affiliated with the Jonathan Edwards Center at Yale University and its Global Centers

The inauguration ceremony will take place at Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church, Faculty of Humanities,
Budapest, Reviczky u. 4. Faculty Hall, First floor

On Monday, July 2nd 2012, at 11 am.

Program

Music:

Liturgical Choir of the Budafok Reformed Church. Leader: Dr Anette Papp

Opening:

Professor Dr Péter Balla, Rector of the University and

Dr Enikő Sepsi, Dean of the Faculty of Arts

Professor Dr Tibor Fabiny, Director of the Center

Greeting:

Dr István Szabó,
Bishop of the Danubian District
of The Reformed Church in Hungary

Music:

Liturgical Choir of the Budafok Reformed Church

Lecture:

Professor Kenneth Minkema, Executive Director of the Jonathan Edwards Center at Yale University

„The Significance of Jonathan Edwards and the Global Centers Today”

Music:

Liturgical Choir of the Budafok Reformed Church

Book-Presentation and Exhibition

The Inauguration Ceremony will be followed by a Reception.

All Welcome